SHERIFF'S ELECTION: WHO WILL WIN?

RE-ELECT

SHERIFF SAUL LAW ORDER AND NO SAJONS!

Sheriff Saul is actively campaigning for re-election. Saul came to Cowtown years ago searching for some lost mules, and was pressed into leading local militia against the Indians. At first reluctant, he became Sheriff by popular demand. A recent scandal involving the rustling of Indian Sheep has brought some disgrace to his office. However Saul is more determined than ever to keep his Office as Sheriff. He says "Cowtown still needs Saul!"

Music Recital

By popular demand, The Cowtown Cultural Arts Society will sponsor a performance by Davy on his harmonica of Folk Songs next week.

Davy for Sheriff Campaign Growing

There seems to be a "grass roots" campaign to elect Davy as Sheriff. Posters keep appearing around the community promoting Davy "fer Sharif." Around town Popular opinions favor Davy for his known courage and humility. It would help his campaign however if they could spell better.

Denies Candidacy

Despite a growing public call for Davy as a candidate for Sheriff of Cowtown, Davy continues to say that he is not a candidate, and that he has no intentions of trying to replace the present Sheriff. Gossip has it that this might be because of his interest in the Sheriff's Daughter. However it is the opinion of this paper that Davy would make a fine Town Sheriff.

Rides "for the Brand"

Says Deputy John

"Davy is my Pard!" Says Deputy John. "He is a loyal friend! He is brave, faithful, trustworthy and kind! He wants what is right and best - Davy rides for the brand!"
