INDIAN UPRISING! IS COWTOWN NEXT?

WAR DRUMS!!!

Attacks on remote Ranches and Farms have created panic in Cowtown. Indian raiders have been stealing livestock and burning homes. The Savages are probably disgruntled Indians from the Reservation. What exactly has motivated this return to the warpath is not clear. Residents of Cowtown are expecting and preparing for a possible attack.

Davy gone Indian

Reports have come in that Davy the Outlaw has joined up with the Indians. Sheriff Saul says that unless he intends to teach them how to raise sheep, it may only be more trouble for area ranches and farms. Davy is still a suspect in the Cowtown Bank Robbery though some local people claim he is innocent.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Sheriff Saul is organizing a local Militia to ride out and bring to an end the Indian Uprising. Brave Cowboys, farmers and merchants are encouraged to join. They must supply their own horses, arms, food, water and ammunition. Muster at the Sheriff's Office at Noon today.

GRAND OPENING!

SNIDELY'S SALOON

Sarsparilla on the house for all Indian fighters!

TEMPERANCE LEAGUE TO PICKET SALOON

The local chapter of the Cary Nation Temperance League will have a rally to protest the opening of the Saloon on Friday Evening. The Cowtown's Women's Sewing Circle will supply Tea and cookies. It is recommended that the protestors leave their husbands at home, and that they bring their own signs to help remove this blight on our fair town. Snidely says he is not scared! Cowtown's women will see. They expect this rally to be a "smashing" success.
